We are committed to making every effort to protect the privacy and confidentiality of your family's health information. In keeping with recently enacted federal legislation, we are pleased to present you our Notice of Privacy Practice. We believe this notice will help you understand our obligations and commitments relative to your privacy as well as your rights over medical information. As always, we welcome any suggestions or comments you might have on this or any other part of our practice.

This notice describes how medical information about our patients may be used and disclosed and how you may obtain access to this information. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) Privacy Regulation is a federal regulation that requires that we provide detailed notice in writing of our privacy practices and policies. We do realize this document is long and we have provided a contact number at the end of the notice should you have questions in regards to our privacy practices.

OUR COMMITMENT TO PROTECTING HEALTH INFORMATION

This Notice describes the ways that Mid-Jersey Pediatrics and its fully owned entities may use and disclose health information (medical record) about our patients. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act requires that healthcare organizations protect the privacy of health information that identifies a patient or where the information can reasonably be used to identify a patient. Under the regulation this information is called "protected health information" and we shall refer to this as "PHI." This Notice additionally describes your rights under the regulation and our obligations regarding the use and disclosure of PHI. As a healthcare provider the law requires us to:

- 📖 Maintain the privacy of PHI about our patients;
- 📖 Give our patients or their legal guardians this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practice with respect to PHI; and
- 📖 Comply with the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices that is currently in effect.

We reserve the right to make changes to this Notice and to make such changes effective for all PHI we may already have about our patients. If and when this Notice is changed, we will post a copy in our office in a prominent location as well as on our website. We will also provide you with a copy of the revised Notice upon your request made to our Privacy Official.

HOW MID-JERSEY PEDIATRICS MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT OUR PATIENTS

Under the regulation we may use and disclose health information for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations.

The following categories describe the different ways we may use and disclose PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations. The examples in each category are not all-inclusive and do not constitute a complete list of all uses and disclosures for that category.

Treatment: We may use and disclose PHI about our patients to provide health care services, coordinate health care services with others or manage our patients' health care and related services. We may consult with other health care providers (physicians, nurse practitioners, laboratory facilities, hospitals, etc) regarding treatment and coordinate and manage our patients' healthcare with others. For example, we may use and disclose PHI when a patient needs a prescription, lab work, an x-ray or other health care services. Additionally, we may use or disclose PHI when we refer you to another health care provider. For example, when we refer you to another health care provider, we may disclose PHI to your new physician regarding your current treatment, such as allergies or current medications.

Other areas under treatment include disclosure of PHI about our patients for treatment from another health care provider. For example, we may send a report from us to a physician that we refer you to so that the other physician may properly perform treatment. We are not required under certain circumstances to obtain a written authorization from our patients to carry out treatment of patient care.

Payment: Billing insurance companies to receive payment on behalf of the patient is a benefit to the patient. To carry out this benefit to the patient we may use and disclose PHI so that we can bill and collect payment for the treatment and services provided. This may include providing information about treatment or services with your health plan before the service(s) is received. For example, we may ask for payment authorization from your health plan before we provide care or services. To help you fully understand your out-of-pocket expense, we may use or disclose PHI to determine if your health plan will cover the cost of care and services provided. We may use and disclose PHI for billing, claims management, and collection activities. We may disclose PHI to insurance companies or third party administrators providing you with additional coverage. We may disclose limited PHI to consumer reporting agencies relating to collection of payments owed to us.

We may disclose PHI to another health care provider or to a company or health plan required to comply with the HIPAA Privacy Rule for the payment activities of that health care provider, company, or health plan. For example, we may use an outside lab to process your specimens and that entity may require PHI to appropriately bill the service to your health plan.

Health Care Operations: Health care providers may use and disclose PHI in performing business activities that are referred to as health care operations. Health care operations allow us to improve the quality of care we provide and to reduce health care cost. Health care operations may include the following:

Quality of Care

We may use PHI about our patients to:

- Review and evaluate the skills, qualifications and performance of health care providers taking care of our patients.
- Cooperate with outside organizations that assess the quality of care that we provide.
- Provide training programs for medical students, health care providers, or non-health care professionals (example: we may use visit notes to assist billing personnel on how to code the service) to help them improve their skills.
- Cooperate with outside organizations that evaluate, certify, or license health care providers or staff.

Treatment Alternatives

- We may use PHI to identify groups of patients with similar health problems to give them information about treatment alternatives, special programs or educational classes.

- Assist Mid-Jersey Pediatrics in making strategic planning decisions.
- Grievance resolution within our organization.
- Business planning and development.
- Business management and general administrative activities of our practice.
